Job Introduction

We are looking for freethinkers who visualize what others don't and are comfortable outside the box. People who empathize with users and simplify solutions like a piece of cake! You should be excited about research and analysis and also open-minded with an unquenchable thirst for new approaches and solutions to real-world problems faced by the common man. You should analyze tasks, and user journeys and provide workflows, interactions, and wireframes.

Your Mission

Think, argue, analyze, strategize and iterate.

Open-minded to suggestions and criticism with an unbreakable spirit.

Analyze 'what' and not "how" the user does it.

Create wireframe specifications with interaction flows.

In-depth understanding of clients and users.

Apply strategic design thinking to real-world problems.

An eye for usability, minimalism, and simplicity.

Superpowers You Will Need

1 – 3 Years of experience.

Well aware of UX approaches and methodologies – research, interviews, personas, task analysis, sitemap, wireframing, and prototyping

Create wireframe specifications with interaction flows.

Apply strategic design thinking to real-world problems.

Perceptiveness about information, alignment, and the visual weight of UI elements.

Strong interpersonal and communication skills.

An eye for usability, minimalism, and simplicity.

Lateral thinking with an appreciation for minimal usable design.
